

Upgrading your existing bandwidth and Janet router

When a customer requests a connection bandwidth upgrade, unless paid for by a centrally funded programme, the upgrade will be funded by the individual customer. The customer will be expected to meet the costs of the upgrade, and if required, the full costs of a new site router or if upgrading an existing router any additional equipment that may be required.

Source URL: <https://community-stg.jisc.ac.uk/library/janet-services-documentation/upgrading-your-existing-bandwidth-and-janet-router>