

Virtually interactive Video-conferencing for schools

Eleanor Markland
Formal Learning Co-ordinator (Museums & Arts)

Wardown Park Museum

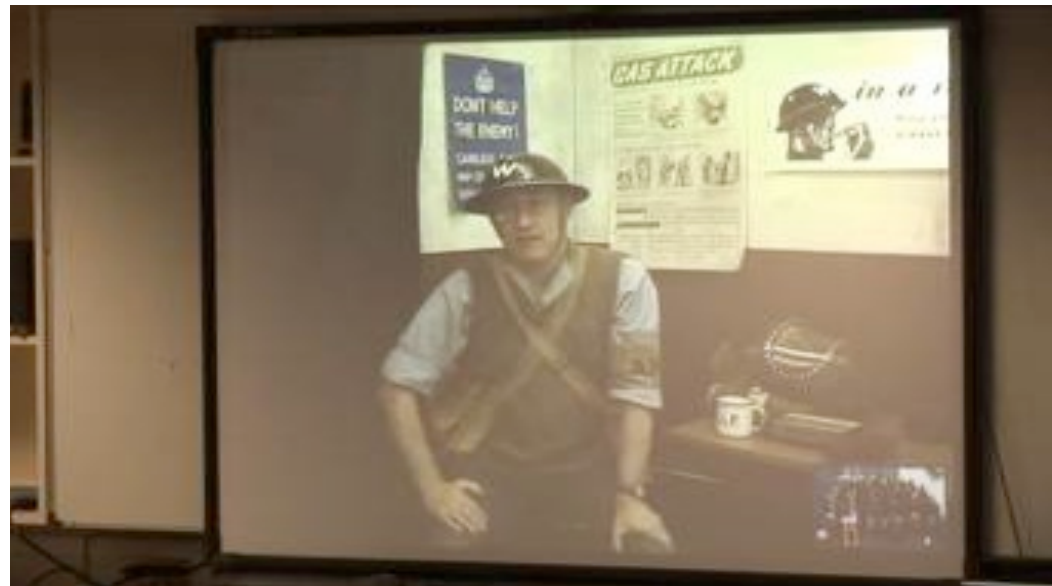

A Working Boy Unit Summary

Lesson 1	Lesson 2	Lesson 3	Lesson 4
Cottage industries and children's role in them e.g. straw plait Albie's story	Exploring the role Generating questions What do they need to find out?	Videoconference Interviewing the Plait school mistress	Discuss outcomes Create the end of the story

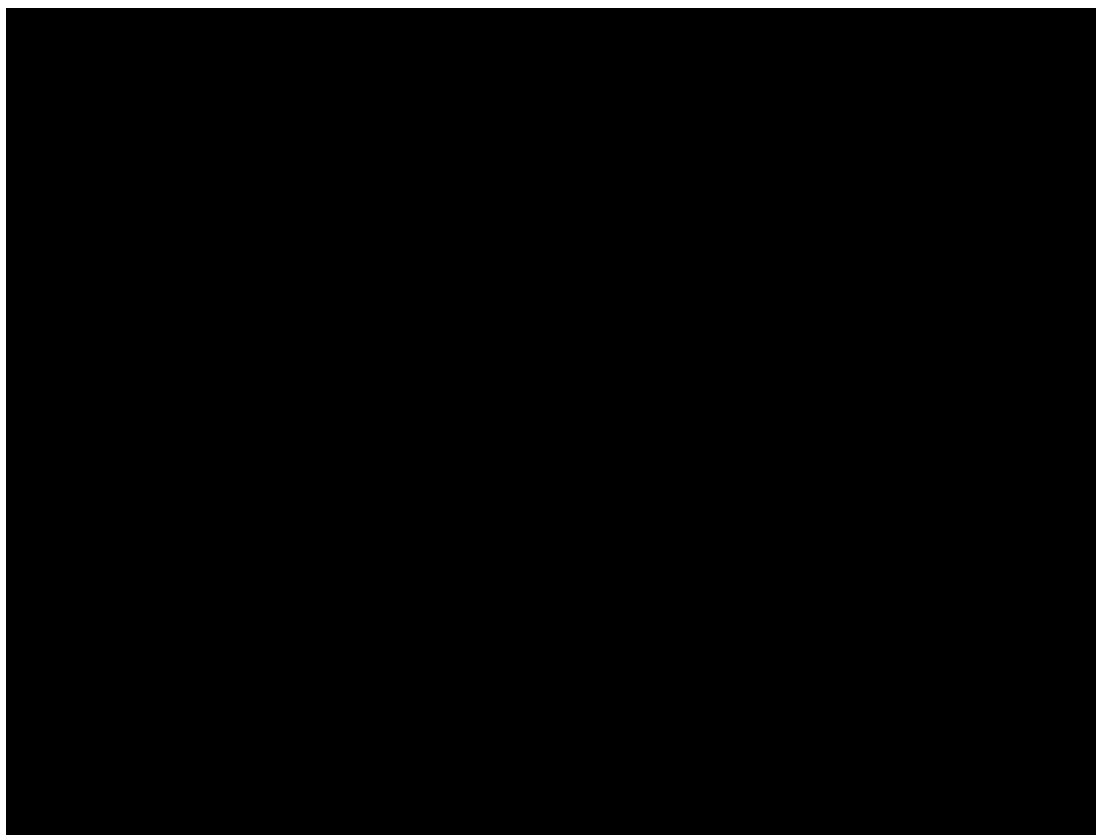

World War Two

Ghostly Greeks

Why video conference?

“They children who asked the best questions were not the most confident, it definitely helped their confidence.””

“Brilliant to have the outline to work with before the make the most of the opportunity”

“The children were able to ask imaginative and relevant questions that they might not otherwise have thought of.

“The children thoroughly enjoyed the VC sessions, it made life in WWII very realistic for them all.”

“The children were all immediately very keen to know that the housewife was safe and well after the air raid.”

“The children are really enthused and vcon is so much less complicated than arranging to get an expert in for the day or going on a trip.”

www.lutonculture.com/schools

Eleanor Markland

eleanor.markland@lutonculture.com

